DETAILED ACTION

An examination of this application reveals that applicant is unfamiliar with patent prosecution procedure. While an inventor may prosecute the application, lack of skill in this field usually acts as a liability in affording the maximum protection for the invention disclosed. Applicant is advised to secure the services of a registered patent attorney or agent to prosecute the application, since the value of a patent is largely dependent upon skilled preparation and prosecution. The Office cannot aid in selecting an attorney or agent.

Applicant is advised of the availability of the publication "Attorneys and Agents Registered to Practice Before the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office." This publication is for sale by the Superintendent of Documents, U.S. Government Printing Office, Washington, D.C. 20402.

Specification

Headings

The disclosure is objected to because of the following informalities: Where applicant has included headings they have been inappropriately underlined and typed in bold font.

The following guidelines illustrate the preferred layout for the specification of a utility application. These guidelines are suggested for the applicant's use.

Arrangement of the Specification

As provided in 37 CFR 1.77(b), the specification of a utility application should include the following sections in order. Each of the lettered items should appear in upper case, without underlining or bold type, as a section heading. If no text follows the section heading, the phrase "Not Applicable" should follow the section heading:

Art Unit: 3749

- (a) TITLE OF THE INVENTION.
- (b) CROSS-REFERENCE TO RELATED APPLICATIONS.
- (c) STATEMENT REGARDING FEDERALLY SPONSORED RESEARCH OR DEVELOPMENT.
- (d) INCORPORATION-BY-REFERENCE OF MATERIAL SUBMITTED ON A COMPACT DISC (See 37 CFR 1.52(e)(5) and MPEP 608.05. Computer program listings (37 CFR 1.96(c)), "Sequence Listings" (37 CFR 1.821(c)), and tables having more than 50 pages of text are permitted to be submitted on compact discs.) or REFERENCE TO A "MICROFICHE APPENDIX" (See MPEP § 608.05(a). "Microfiche Appendices" were accepted by the Office until March 1, 2001.)
- (e) BACKGROUND OF THE INVENTION.
 - (1) Field of the Invention.
 - (2) Description of Related Art including information disclosed under 37 CFR 1.97 and 1.98.
- (f) BRIEF SUMMARY OF THE INVENTION.
- (g) BRIEF DESCRIPTION OF THE SEVERAL VIEWS OF THE DRAWING(S).
- (h) DETAILED DESCRIPTION OF THE INVENTION.
- (i) CLAIM OR CLAIMS (commencing on a separate sheet).
- (j) ABSTRACT OF THE DISCLOSURE (commencing on a separate sheet).
- (k) SEQUENCE LISTING (See MPEP § 2424 and 37 CFR 1.821-1.825. A "Sequence Listing" is required on paper if the application discloses a nucleotide or amino acid sequence as defined in 37 CFR 1.821(a) and if the required "Sequence Listing" is not submitted as an electronic document on compact disc).

Appropriate correction is required.

Title of the Invention - Lengthy

The disclosure is objected to because of the following informalities: The Title (i.e.- "Household outdoor gas cooking stove with an enclosure to provide wind shielding during cooking and protect stove and cooking apparatus while not in use") of the application is excessively long.

For example, a suitable Title would be: - - An outdoor gas cooking stove with wind shielding - -.

Appropriate correction is required.

Art Unit: 3749

Regarding the Title of the application Applicant's attention is directed to the following:

Title of the Invention: See 37 CFR 1.72(a) and MPEP § 606. The title of the invention should be placed at the top of the first page of the specification unless the title is provided in an application data sheet. The title of the invention should be brief but technically accurate and descriptive, preferably from two to seven words may not contain more than 500 characters.

Brief Description of Drawing Figures - Missing

The disclosure is objected to because of the following informalities: The Specification does not include Brief Description of the Several Views of the Drawings.

Regarding the Brief Description of the Several Views of the Drawings of the application Applicant's attention is directed to the following:

Brief Description of the Several Views of the Drawing(s): See MPEP § 608.01(f). A reference to and brief description of the drawing(s) as set forth in 37 CFR 1.74.

Appropriate correction is required.

Detailed Description of the Invention- Missing

The disclosure is objected to because of the following informalities: A Detailed Description of the Invention is not included.

Regarding the Title of the application Applicant's attention is directed to the following:

Detailed Description of the Invention: See MPEP § 608.01(g). A description of the preferred embodiment(s) of the invention as required in 37 CFR 1.71. The description should be as short and specific as is necessary to describe the invention adequately and accurately. Where elements or groups of elements, compounds, and processes, which are conventional and generally widely known in the field of the invention described and their exact nature or type is not necessary for an understanding and use of the invention by a person skilled in the art, they should not be described in detail. However, where particularly complicated subject matter is involved or where the elements, compounds, or processes may not be commonly or widely known in the field, the specification should refer to another patent or readily available publication which adequately describes the subject matter.

Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

Claims 1-6 are rejected as failing to define the invention in the manner required by 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph.

The claims are narrative in form and replete with indefinite and functional or operational language. The structure which goes to make up the device must be clearly and positively specified. The structure must be organized and correlated in such a manner as to present a complete operative device. Note the format of the claims in the patent(s) cited. But for the inclusion in the claims of non-specific limitations which only broadly and generally, define structure (e.g. - in the grill like, stove, gas stove, frame, bottom part, air intake, lower part, igniter, handle, wok, pan), applicant not set forth structure organized and correlated in such a manner as to present a complete operative barbeque device, or method of operating a barbeque. In addition, there is insufficient antecedent basis for many of the limitations in the claims 1-6.

In particular:

In claim 1, there is no proper antecedent basis for "the outdoor stove and cooking appliance".

In claim 2, there is no proper antecedent basis for "the barbeque grill like enclosure"

In claim 3, there is no proper antecedent basis for "the ordinary indoor gas grill".

Art Unit: 3749

In claim 4, there is no proper antecedent basis for "the barbeque grill like frame".

In claim 5, there is no proper antecedent basis for "the bottom part".

In claim 5, there is no proper antecedent basis for "the enclosure".

In claim 6, there is no proper antecedent basis for "the cut-out"

In claim 6, there is no proper antecedent basis for "the lower part"

In claim 6, there is no proper antecedent basis for "the enclosure"

In claim 6, there is no proper antecedent basis for "the gas stove igniter"

In claim 6, there is no proper antecedent basis for "the handle"

In claim 6, there is no proper antecedent basis for "the wok or pan"

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(a) the invention was known or used by others in this country, or patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country, before the invention thereof by the applicant for a patent.

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

(e) the invention was described in a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent, or on an international application by another who has fulfilled the requirements of paragraphs (1), (2), and (4) of section 371(c) of this title before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent.

The changes made to 35 U.S.C. 102(e) by the American Inventors Protection Act of 1999 (AIPA) and the Intellectual Property and High Technology Technical Amendments Act of 2002 do not apply when the reference is a U.S. patent resulting directly or indirectly from an international application filed before November 29, 2000. Therefore, the prior art date of the reference is determined under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) prior to the amendment by the AIPA (pre-AIPA 35 U.S.C. 102(e)).

Claims 1-6: rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b)

With regard to the any of the following rejections of claims 1-6 under 35 U.S.C. 102(b), recitations including the phrase "the use of ..." (e.g.- "the use of barbeque like enclosure..."; "the use of a more powerful gas stove"; "the use of holes", etc.) are deemed recitations of the intended use of the claimed invention. A recitation of the intended use of the claimed invention must result in a structural difference between the claimed invention and the prior art in order to patentably distinguish the claimed invention from the prior art. If the prior art structure is capable of performing the intended use, then it meets the claim. In a claim drawn to a process of making, the intended use must result in a manipulative difference as compared to the prior art. See In re Casey, 152 USPQ 235 (CCPA 1967) and In re Otto, 136 USPQ 458, 459 (CCPA 1963).

Claims 1,5: rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b)

Claims 1, 5 and 6 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Rhodes.

Rhodes shows a grill like enclosure (10) having a lower cut-out portion (15) which accommodates a pan handle (6) and is capable of permitting ignition of a stove within the enclosure (e.g.- with a match).

Claims 1-5: rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b)

Claims 1-5 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Stephen, Jr.

Art Unit: 3749

Stephens, Jr. shows:

- 1) A barbeque grill like enclosure of a given shape covering an outdoor gas stove and cooking apparatus (46,62);
- 2) A gas stove (46,62) inside of the barbeque grill like enclosure (20,22);
- 3) A barbeque grill like frame (32), shelves (46), and wheels (38) with my stove and enclosure;
- 4) Holes (112) in the bottom part of the enclosure for air intake and drainage;

Claim 4: rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b)

Claim 4 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Hahn (U.S. Patent No. 4705020)

Hahn shows and discloses powerful gas barbeque stoves where the power output is greater than 16,000 Btu/hour (see column 5, beginning at line 7).

Conclusion

See the attached form USPTOL -892 for prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
